VII. Newsletter Team Updates

As the new editors of the EMOdiR newsletter, first of all, we would like to thank Alessandra Celati and Manuela Bragagnolo who preceded us in this task: they did a great job and we can only hope to succeed in preserving the terrific work they have done so far. To maintain a consistent newsletter publication schedule, the newsletter team will be publishing four newsletters per year starting in 2022. We will be working in conjunction with the website team and with Giselle Bernard (in charge of the editing process) in order to ensure the timely communication of pertinent information and better define and delineate the roles appropriately. Pending approval, our tentative publication schedule will be March, June, September, and December.
